

Oklahoma State University Center for Health System Innovation in collaboration with PHIO and the IHCDS hosted the 2019 Rural Health Innovation Challenge as a component of the Rural Health Association Conference, the challenge was held on May 30, 2019 in Norman, Oklahoma. Seed funding for project innovation has been provided by Oklahoma State University Center for Science Health Innovation and other donors.

- Winners of the Challenge included:
  - Data: Walktober- Payne County Live Well Coalition
  - Crowd Favorite: Yale Disc Golf- Payne County Live Well Coalition
  - Overall Challenge Winners:
    - Walktober- Payne County Live Well Coalition
    - Yale Disc Golf- Payne County- Payne County Live Well Coalition
    - Telehealthy Living- Okfuskee County Community Coalition
    - Logan County Combats ACEs- Logan County Community Partnership
    - I Can See Clearly- Kingfisher County Collaborative

